FACTORS THAT MAY IMPACT PRE-APPROVAL

- Income
- Assets
- Credit History
- Employment
- Debt

BENEFITS OF PRE-APPROVAL

- Gives you clarity when determining your homebuying budget.
- Helps sellers know your offer is serious.
- You can be more confident in your ability to secure a loan.

THINGS TO AVOID AFTER APPLYING FOR A MORTGAGE

- Do not change bank accounts.
- Do not apply for new credit or open a credit line.
- Do not deposit or move large sums of money in your bank accounts.
- Do not miss any payments on accounts.
- Do not make any large purchases on credit.
- Do not co-sign other loans for anyone.
- Do not make changes to your name, address, job, or income.

Before engaging in any financial activities, fully disclose your intentions with your lender.

Closing Costs

What are they and how much will you pay?

WHAT ARE CLOSING COSTS? Closing costs are processing fees that must be paid when the property title is transferred from seller to buyer. The specific closing costs you'll need to pay depend on the type of loan.

WHAT DO CLOSING COSTS COVER? Costs differ based on location, property, and loan type. Some of these costs could include fees for the:

- Loan application
- Appraisal
- Lien and Title Searches
- Survey
- Title Insurance
- Pro-Rated Property Taxes
- Lender's Title Policy
- Mortgage Recording Fees
- Underwriting
- Realtor Service Fees
- Inspections (and if the home is older, additional inspections may be needed for the roof, plumbing, a/c, electric, septic, and/or foundation)

HOW MUCH ARE CLOSING COSTS? Usually between 3 - 6% of the loan amount. This means that if the mortgage amount is $400,000, expect closing costs to be approx $12,000 to $24,000.

WHAT'S CLOSING DISCLOSURE? A Closing Disclosure outlines all the costs associated with the new loan, along with other closing costs, and how much money will be needed at the time of closing.

Inspections

FOR YOUR PROTECTION, GET A HOME INSPECTION.

Home inspections are a crucial step in the buying process. They provide an in-depth look at the property's condition, helping you avoid costly surprises.

A professional inspector will assess the home's structure, systems, and overall safety, ensuring it meets your expectations.

COMMON ISSUES FOUND DURING INSPECTIONS

During an inspection, some common issues might be uncovered, such as roof damage, plumbing problems, electrical issues, and foundation cracks.

Identifying these problems early allows for renegotiation with the seller or ensures necessary repairs are made before closing.

RECOMMENDED FOR ALL HOMES

Home inspections are recommended for all types of homes no matter the age, including newly built homes. And, depending on the age and condition of the home, consider a more extensive evaluation of the HVAC, plumbing, electrical, or roof, performed by a licensed contractor specific to those items.

Ready for Closing

E-SIGNING AND STORING DOCUMENTS

Complete, sign, and share documents easily and securely with Dotloop. Organize and store documents long after closing.

SETTING UP UTILITIES AND SCHEDULE MOVERS

Before moving in, ensure all utilities and services, such as electricity, water, internet, and garbage collection, are set up and transferred to your name. If you're interested, we'll connect you with Utility Helpers, who will help coordinate utility transfers and connect you with moving companies at no cost to you.

PODS CONTAINERS

Take advantage of CENTURY 21's special promotion with PODS Moving and Storage Containers. Visit pods.com/century21. Or call 866-940-7637. Promo Code: CENT

HOME WARRANTY

A home warranty provides peace of mind and financial protection by covering major home systems and appliances, helping you manage unexpected repair costs. If you're interested, we'll connect you with Global Home USA.

FINAL WALKTHROUGH BEFORE MOVING IN

A final walkthrough of the property is conducted a day or two before closing. This ensures the home is in the agreed-upon condition and that any requested repairs have been completed. It's your last chance to address any issues before finalizing the purchase.

CUSTOMER SATISFACTION SURVEY

After closing, we invite our clients to complete a Quality Service Survey through an independent company called Real Satisfied. We encourage honest and real feedback.

BUYERS - BE AWARE of Major Changes Coming on 8/17

WIZARD ARTICLE - JULY 2024

Whether you're Buying Real Estate or Selling Real Estate, this message is important to you!

Because, even when you sell, you're likely to become a Buyer! As you embark on your home-buying journey, we want to keep you informed about an important change in the real estate process that will affect all buyers nationwide.

What's New?

Due to a recent Settlement of a Department of Justice lawsuit against the National Association of REALTORS and nearly all Brokerages and Agents in the Country, it is now mandatory for buyers to sign a Buyer Broker Agreement before viewing any properties with an agent. This policy is designed to ensure transparency and protect your interests throughout the home-buying process. When you break the Settlement down, there are only a few substantial changes.

One – The MLS, a tool used by the brokerage community to disclose compensation, is no longer allowed to disclose compensation. So, an agent will no longer know what commission they will be receiving.

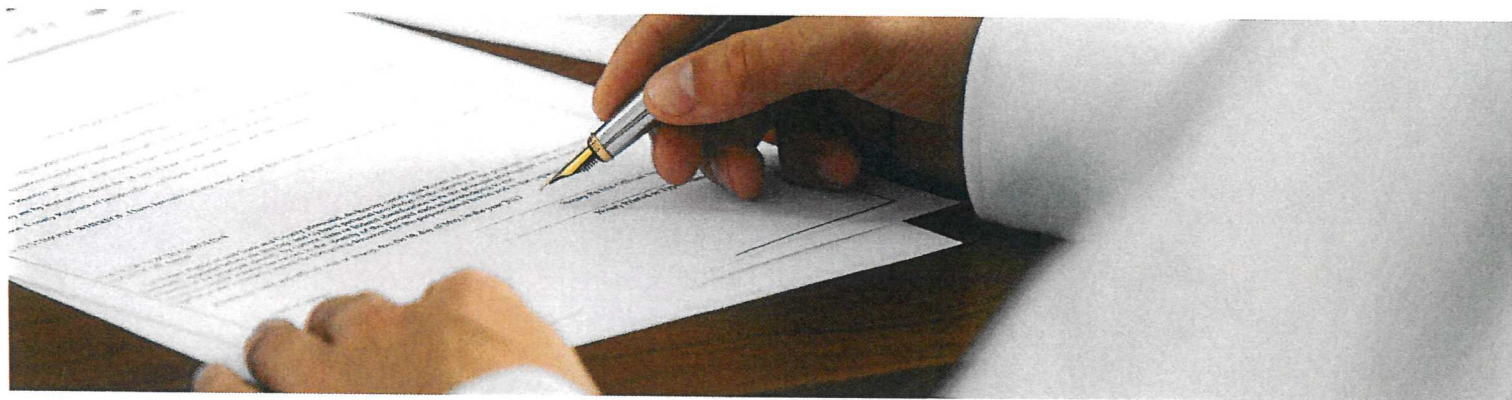

Two – All commissions are negotiable and a Seller no longer has to offer commission to a Buyer's Agent (Commissions have always been negotiated but it still remains in the Sellers best interest to offer compensation to the Buyers agent, otherwise the Buyer will have to come out of pocket to pay their agent) and Three – An agent is not permitted to show properties to a Buyer unless the Buyer signs a Buyer Broker Agreement that clearly spells out how much commission the Buyer is willing to pay their Buyers Broker. Note: The Buyers Agent can request that the Seller pay the Commission on behalf of the Buyer, but if the Seller says no, the buyer would be obliged to pay the commission. Hence why it's in the Sellers best interest to offer compensation to a Buyer's Agent.

Why Is This Important?

- 1. Clear Representation: The Buyer Broker Agreement solidifies our commitment to representing you, ensuring that your needs and preferences are our top priority.
- 2. Transparency: This agreement outlines the services we will provide and the responsibilities of both parties, fostering a more collaborative relationship.
- 3. Nationwide Compliance: This change is part of a broader effort to standardize real estate practices across the country, so all buyers will be required to adhere to this policy.

Next Steps:

Before we can begin looking at homes together, we'll need you to review and sign the Buyer Broker Agreement. We are here to answer any questions you may have about the agreement or the home-buying process in general.

Your Home Search Starts Here!

Once the agreement is in place, we can hit the ground running and find the perfect home for you. We appreciate your understanding and cooperation as we navigate this new requirement together. If you have any questions or would like to discuss this further, please don't hesitate to reach out.

Embracing this practice not only attracts quality representation but also expands market reach, streamlines transactions, and maximizes sale potential. As the real estate landscape continues to evolve, adaptability remains key, ensuring that sellers thrive amidst change while staying true to the timeless principles of the trade.

Until next month, may you have fair weather and following seas throughout 2024!

Let's Get Started

We know this process can be both thrilling and a bit overwhelming, and we're here to support you every step of the way. We take our responsibility very seriously, ensuring you have the experience and care you need to ease any concerns.

As a buyer, you will need to sign an agreement with us as your buyer's agent. This agreement, called the Buyer Brokerage Agreement, is essential as it:

- outlines our obligations to each other
- explains how we represent you in finding and purchasing your home
- details how we earn our fee

It's a way to make sure we're both on the same page and committed to working together.

We'll be in your corner, negotiating the best price and terms, and guiding you through each step of the process.

Buyer Broker Agreement

Recent regulations have been implemented industry-wide that require buyers to sign a representation agreement with any real estate agent they choose to work with. This agreement outlines what buyers can expect from their agents.

Exclusive Buyer Brokerage Agreement

1. PARTIES: _____ ("Consumer") grants
_____ ("Broker")

the exclusive right to work with and assist Consumer in locating and negotiating the acquisition of suitable real property as described below. The term "acquire" or "acquisition" includes any purchase, option, exchange, lease or other acquisition of an ownership, possessory or equity interest in real property.

2. TERM: This Agreement will begin on the _____ day of _____ and will terminate at 11:59 p.m. on the _____ day of _____ ("Termination Date"). However, if Consumer enters into an agreement to acquire property that is pending on the Termination Date, this Agreement will continue in effect until that transaction has closed or otherwise terminated.

3. PROPERTY: Consumer is interested in acquiring real property as follows or as otherwise acceptable to Consumer ("Property"):

(a) Type of property: _____

(b) Location: _____

4. BROKER'S OBLIGATIONS:

(a) Broker Assistance. Broker will

- * use Broker's professional knowledge and skills;
- * discuss property requirements and assist Consumer in locating and viewing suitable properties;
- * assist Consumer in negotiating and closing any resulting transaction;
- * cooperate with real estate licensees working with the owner, if any, to complete a transaction.

(b) Other Consumers. Consumer understands that Broker may work with other prospective consumers who want to acquire the same property as Consumer. If Broker submits offers by competing consumers, Broker will notify Consumer that a competing offer has been made, but will not disclose any of the offer's material terms or conditions. Consumer agrees that Broker may make competing consumers aware of the existence of any offer Consumer makes, so long as Broker does not reveal any material terms or conditions of the offer without Consumer's prior written consent. Consumer understands that even if Broker is compensated by an owner or a real estate licensee who is working with an owner, such compensation does not compromise Broker's duties to Consumer.

(c) Fair Housing. Broker adheres to the principles expressed in the Fair Housing Act and will not participate in any act that unlawfully discriminates on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, country of national origin or any other category protected under federal, state or local law.

(d) Service Providers. Broker does not warrant or guarantee products or services provided by any third party whom Broker, at Consumer's request, refers or recommends to Consumer in connection with property acquisition.

5. CONSUMER'S OBLIGATIONS: Consumer agrees to cooperate with Broker in accomplishing the objectives of this Agreement, including:

(a) Conducting all negotiations and efforts to locate suitable property only through Broker and referring to Broker all inquiries of any kind from real estate licensees, property owners or any other source. If Consumer contacts or is contacted by an owner, or a real estate licensee who is working with an owner or views a property unaccompanied by Broker, Consumer, will, at first opportunity, advise the owner or real estate licensee that Consumer is working with and represented exclusively by Broker.

(b) Providing Broker and necessary third parties (i.e., any lender, closing agent, etc.) with accurate information requested by Broker or third parties in connection with ensuring Consumer's ability to acquire property. Consumer authorizes Broker to run a credit check to verify Consumer's credit information.

(c) Being available to meet with Broker at reasonable times for consultations and to view properties.

(d) Indemnifying and holding Broker harmless from and against all losses, damages, costs and expenses of any kind, including attorney's fees, and from liability to any person, that Broker incurs because of acting on Consumer's behalf.

(e) Not asking or expecting to restrict the acquisition of a property according to race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, country of national origin or any other category protected under federal, state or local law.

(f) Consulting an appropriate professional for legal, tax, environmental, engineering, foreign reporting requirements and other specialized advice.

Buyer Broker Agreement

The Buyer Brokerage Agreement is essential as it:

- outlines our obligations to each other
- explains how we represent you in finding and purchasing your home
- details how we earn our fee

It's a way to make sure we're both on the same page and committed to working together.

(g) Making a diligent good faith effort to perform the contract terms of any purchase agreement or contract to lease and close on the sale of any property Consumer contracts to acquire.

6. RETAINER: A non-refundable retainer fee of $_____ for Broker's services provided for Consumer ("Retainer") is earned and payable upon execution of this Agreement. This Retainer is in addition to any compensation earned by Broker. Broker and Consumer agree the Retainer is for the real estate services described herein and does not constitute a fee paid for a rental information list as described in section 475.453, Florida Statutes.

7. COMPENSATION: Broker's compensation is earned when, during the term of this Agreement or any renewal or extension, Consumer or any person acting for or on behalf of Consumer contracts to acquire real property as specified in this Agreement or defaults on any contract to acquire property. This compensation is for Broker's services for Consumer. Compensation received by Broker, if any, from an owner or owner's broker for services rendered to Consumer will reduce any amount owed by Consumer per this paragraph.

(a) Purchase or exchange: $_____ or _____% (select only one); or $_____ or _____% plus $325 (select only one) of the total purchase price or other consideration for the acquired property, payable no later than the date of closing specified in the sales contract; however, closing is not a prerequisite for Broker's fee being earned.

(b) Lease: $_____ or _____% of _____ month's rent (select only one); or $_____ or _____% plus $_____ (select only one) of the gross lease value, payable when Consumer enters into a lease with the owner. If Consumer enters into a lease-purchase agreement, the amount of the leasing fee which Broker receives will be credited toward the amount due Broker for the purchase.

(c) Option: Broker will be paid $_____ or _____% of the option amount, to be paid when Consumer enters into the option agreement. If Consumer enters into a lease with option to purchase, Broker will be compensated for both the lease and the option.

(d) Other: Broker will be compensated for all other types of acquisitions as if such acquisition were a purchase or exchange.

(e) Additional Fees:

8. PROTECTION PERIOD: Consumer will compensate Broker if, within 45 (if left blank, 30) days after Termination Date, Consumer contracts to acquire any property which was called to Consumer's attention by Broker or any other person or found by Consumer during the term of this Agreement. Consumer's obligation to pay Broker's fee ceases upon Consumer entering into a good faith exclusive buyer brokerage agreement with another broker after Termination Date.

9. CONDITIONAL TERMINATION: At Consumer's request, Broker may agree to conditionally terminate this Agreement. If Broker agrees to conditional termination of this Agreement, Consumer must enter a written agreement to this effect and pay a cancellation fee of $$500. Broker may void the conditional termination and Consumer will pay the fee stated in the COMPENSATION Paragraph less the cancellation fee if, from the early termination date to Termination Date plus Protection Period, if applicable, Consumer contracts to acquire any property which, prior to the early termination date, was found by Consumer or called to Consumer's attention by Broker or any other person.

10. DISPUTE RESOLUTION: This Agreement will be construed under Florida law. All controversies, claims, and other matters in question between the parties arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof will be settled by first attempting mediation under the rules of the American Arbitration Association or other mediator agreed upon by the parties. If litigation arises out of this Agreement, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs, unless the parties agree that disputes will be settled by arbitration as follows: Arbitration: By initialing in the space provided, Consumer , and Broker or Authorized Associate agree that disputes not resolved by mediation will be settled by neutral binding arbitration in the county in which the Property is located in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association or other arbitrator agreed upon by the parties. Each party to any arbitration (or litigation to enforce the arbitration provision of this Agreement or an arbitration award) will pay its own fees, costs, and expenses, including attorney's fees, and will equally split the arbitrator's fees and administrative fees of arbitration.

11. ASSIGNMENT; PERSONS BOUND: Broker may assign this Agreement to another broker. This Agreement will bind and inure to Broker's and Consumer's heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns.

Buyer Broker Agreement

We take our responsibility very seriously, ensuring you have the experience and care you need throughout your buying process.

We'll be in your corner, negotiating the best price and terms, and guiding you through each step of the way.
